

An ideal solution for small and mid-sized businesses who want to provide their clients with secure electronic access to invoices, contracts, or any other documents

AccessPoint replaces the traditional mail you send to clients with secure permission based access to all types of documents — Saving you money while providing your clients with superior service

Using the software allows you to:

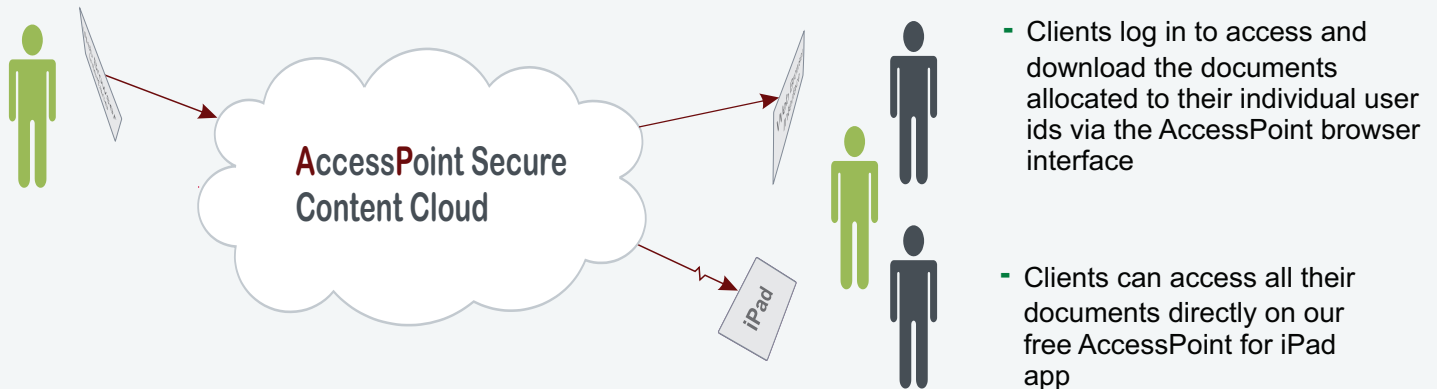

- Easily distribute and make available all types of documents to your clients electronically
- Provide clients with secure access to documents via any web-browser and directly on their iPad's
- Enable your clients to easily manage the documents you send them

Implement a streamlined process for distributing documents to your clients

- Upload documents for your clients into your account via our AccessPoint web-interface

- E-mail alerts notify users as documents are made available

- Clients log in to access and download the documents allocated to their individual user ids via the AccessPoint browser interface
- Clients can access all their documents directly on our free AccessPoint for iPad app

A process which saves you time and ensures your documents are sent to the correct individuals

- Providing a reliable process for uploading documents and allocating these documents to your individual client's login ids
- Providing the ability to have documents reviewed prior to the documents being made available to clients
- Providing clients with professional looking email alerts as documents are available with the option of including the individual documents as an attachment

Utilize a professional solution for providing your clients with access to their documents — a solution which is used by some of the largest global organizations is now available to you at a fraction of the cost.
